S073756 In re Attorney Discipline System

After considering the final report of Retired Justice Elwood Lui, appointed Special Master in the above-entitled action, the court makes the following order:

Pursuant to Rule 963, the court orders that the balance of the funds remaining in the Special Master's Attorney Discipline Fund shall be transferred to the State Bar, which shall continue to segregate these funds and to keep records of the purposes for which they are utilized. These funds are to be used solely for activities that will have a direct or substantial impact on discipline-related functions or the maintenance or enhancement of the Bar's technology system. Included in the activities for which the funds may be used is payment to Retired Justice Elwood Lui for further services rendered to the State Bar through June 30, 2000, to assist the State Bar during its transition to a new management structure under the direction of a new Executive Director, General Counsel, Chief Trial Counsel, and Chief Financial Officer. Further authorization for payment to Justice Lui shall be by order of this court.

The funds shall be administered by the State Bar's Senior Executive Team, which is charged with reviewing and evaluating all requests for use of the funds and making final decisions regarding their disbursement. The Executive Director shall have authority to disburse the funds consistent with the decisions of the Senior Executive Team and any order of this court. The funds from the Special Master's Attorney Discipline Fund should be audited in the normal course of business along with other State Bar accounts, with certification by an external auditor that the State Bar has complied with all required procedures pursuant to this order.
